The AI navigated to the Unsplash Blog to explore community stories and test site functionality. It successfully filtered content by the 'Announcements' category, accessed a featured article about the 2025 Unsplash Awards, and verified that the pagination system correctly loads additional posts.

Step-by-Step Walkthrough

1. Accessing the Unsplash Blog

The AI navigates to the Unsplash Blog homepage to begin the exploration of featured stories and updates.

2. Filtering by Announcements

The AI selects the 'Announcements' category filter to narrow down the feed to official news and team updates.

3. Opening a Featured Article

The AI clicks on the 'Unsplash Awards 2025 Selections' article to view the detailed announcement.

The 9th annual Unsplash Awards have come to a close. This year brought together powerful images, bold ideas, and a community that never stops raising the bar.

Before we reveal this year's finalists, we need to say a huge thank you. Every submission, every share, every ounce of support helped shape one of our most exciting Awards yet.

A huge round of applause goes to our amazing panel of judges for taking on the nearly impossible task of selecting this year's finalists.

And a special shoutout to our sponsor, Samsung Memory, for awarding each finalist $500 USD and for presenting this year's Photo and Illustration of the Year Awards.

Now for the best part: here are the finalists and shortlists of the 2025 Unsplash Awards.
