Verify that a user can navigate to the Wallpapers category, select an image, and dismiss any promotional overlays.

The agent started on the Unsplash homepage, navigated to the 'Wallpapers' topic section, selected a specific black and white tree photo, and finally dismissed a 'Got it!' promotional overlay to view the full image details.

- The 'Got it!' button appears in a dialog/overlay; ensure the selector handles the portal/dialog context.
- Use 'domcontentloaded' for the initial navigation to speed up the test.
- The image link contains descriptive alt-text/name which is used for the locator.
